MINE OPERATORS FIGHT FREIGHT RATE INCREASE

Chicago, Ill., April 14.—Coal mine operators who compiain that the proposed increase in freight rates on coal will work an unnecessary hardship on hem, today began before W. M. Daniela, interstate commerce commissioner, the presentation of their objections to the new rates proposed by the 40 western ratironds. F. H. Harwood, vice president of the New Kentucky Coal company, testified to existing conditions in the Illinois coal fields.

If the proposed advance of ten cents on in cost rates to Minnesota points on the Illinois coal fields, Harwood This will virtually give the railroads operating from the Lake Superior docks a monopoly of the cost trade."
